

Decorative and Custom Parts

When a special decorative or truly custom solution is called for, Mercury Products is there for you.

Applications

For heavy truck, bus, RV, automotive, construction, agricultural, motorcycle, exhaust, filtration, office furniture, medical and industrial.

Materials

Hot-rolled or cold-rolled steel (custom), stainless steel, aluminized steel (custom), aluminum, brass or other upon your request.

Sizes

Various.

Assemblies

Structural components, brackets, brake pedals, shift levers, tank clamps and many more.

Finishes

Zinc-plated, chrome-plated, painted or polished to meet your requirements.

About Mercury Products Manufacturers around the world count on us for custom and innovative metal products and assemblies, and have since 1946. Mercury has the resources, flexibility and expertise to handle even the most demanding projects. Our customers have a strategic partner for every step of the process, from engineering and design through testing and manufacturing, because we align our capabilities with their goals. With our products ultimately used for securing and serving the heavy truck, construction, agricultural, automotive and motorcycle market vehicles in addition to industrial, exhaust and other market products, we like to think we help hold the world together!

1201 South Mercury Drive
Schaumburg, Illinois 60193-3598
info@mercprod.com

Certifications:
ISO9001 | ISO/TS16949 | ISO14001
See our website for more information.